By filling out and submitting this application you are stating that you understand that you will be expected to work hard to benefit this church, failure to pay your dues of hard productive work will result in membership termination.

You, also, legally affirm that the above answers are truthful AND show that you know and understand ALL of the Darkside Collective policies (which can be found on the Members' Handbook which you can purchase for US$15.00 by writing to Rev. Scott Robb via the address provided below). The Darkside Collective reserves the right to terminate, without prior warning, the membership of anyone found to have deceived us, through their application information!

And, you show that you know and understand the Satanic Ethics of the Darkside Collective Ministry (which can be found in the Members' Handbook) and will NOT force others to participate in Satanic activities against their will, or practice "devil worshipping" activities, including:

- Engaging in sexual acts or encouraging others to engage in sexual acts as a part of Satanic activities
- Involving minors in Satanic activities against their will (or without the consent of parents or legal guardians of those of, or under, the age of 16)
- Engaging in or encouraging others to engage in any acts that could be harmful to animals or children

Further, you show that you will agree to conduct yourselves responsibly within society! You must understand that you will be expected to be a productive hard-working individual within the Darkside Collective Ministry and be active, and accurate, in representing Satanism in your area. You may be expected to be a contact point and/or mentor to new members in your area as assigned.

Your membership can be terminated, without warning, if you are proven to be involved in activities deemed illegal in your region or country, if you are proven to be taking undue financial advantage of the Darkside Collective and/or if you conduct yourself in a way that could bring dishonor or legal complications to the Darkside Collective!

All general questions or comments can be sent to the Darkside Collective Council via the mailing address provided.
